Camp Fire Girls Hold Council Fire Friday

Following the customs of early American Indians the Camp Fire Girls hold a ceremonial meeting to observe special occasions. On Friday, April 7 at 7:30 p.m. three Camp Fire Groups of WALTERIA will hold a joint Council Fire at the WALTERIA School Cafeteria.

The highlight of this ceremonial will be the awarding of rank insignia to girls passing their Trail Seeker and Weed Gatherer ranks. Presentation will be made by Miss Marilyn Jensen, Chairman of the Harbor District Committee of the Camp Fire Girls organization. Girls receiving their Trail Seeker charm will be: Louise Bourassa, Eunice Cooper and Barbara Martin of the "Wahanka" group whose Guardian is Mrs. Harriett Archer. From the "Eluta-Keda" group: Emmalee Bigelow, Gloria Bourassa, Nancy Craig, Mallory Heavysge, Linda Kramer, Nicki Pike, Pamela Stewart, Lynette Spellman, Gail Vincent, Nancy Maxwell, Peggy Kellogg, Tedianna Smith—Guardian Mrs. Louise Bigelow.

The second rank in Camp Fire—Wood Gatherer—is recognized by the presentation of a symbolic ring. Girls receiving this from the "Wahanka" group include: Patsy Archer, Jan Edsath, Barbara Snyder and Mary Brinkerhof. From the "Gustukehani" group: Belinda Baty, Sherry Branch, Elizabeth Edsath, Robin Hilbern, Carol Hebern, Jodean Megraw, Cathy Neff, Linda Pernet, Debbie Vedberg, Eileene Smith, Guardian, Mrs. Almemo Neff.

One of the traditional ceremonies performed at council fires is the lighting of the candles of Wehels. The candle of Work will be lit by Patsy Archer and at the close of the ceremony will be extinguished by Mary Brinkerhof. The candle of Health will be lit by Linda Pernet and extinguished by Sherry Branch. The candle of love will be lit by Pamela Stewart and extinguished by Lynette Spellman.

Roll Call will reveal each Camp Fire Girl's Indian name and its meaning.

The Camp Fire Girl's Crede will be given by Carole Heberg of the Gustukehani group.

This Council Fire will bring to a conclusion the festivities of the Golden Jubilee year. These groups are all sponsored by the WALTERIA Business Women's Club.

The public is cordially invited to attend and observe the progressive aim of this organization toward successful homemakers of tomorrow and good citizens of today.
